

YOUR WEDDING DAY

The Famous Men and Women Who Have Shared It

By MARY MARSHALL

(June 6—Crown Prince Frederick of Germany and Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin—King Oscar of Sweden and Sophia of Nassau.)

WHEN the present Crown Prince of Germany was married to Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin eleven years ago to-day, it was proudly said that the bride was "like an English girl." This, apparently, recommended her to the popular mind. The fact that she could speak the English language without an accent was greatly to her credit, as well as the fact that she was more devoted to outdoor sports than to the homely housewifely duties, a fact that showed her English leanings. No doubt to-day she is regarded as typically German, and perhaps it would add to her popularity if she spoke the English language with an accent.

In spite of the stories circulated, it is said, by the press agents of certain famous American actresses and opera singers, Crown Prince Frederick never had any wild oats to sow and when he was engaged it was said that he never in his life had loved any woman save his dear mother and Cecilia. Oh, to be sure, he had once ridden up the steps of the imperial palace on horseback, and—why remember a few boyish pranks?

It rather added to the popularity of this union in Germany that it was not at first approved by the Kaiser, not because the Kaiser's approval was not highly desirable in the eyes of his people, but because the fact of his disapproval indicated, more than anything else could possibly have done, that the Crown Prince was marrying for love—a motive dear to the heart of every true German. But the Kaiser did eventually give his blessing and consent after the Crown Prince had made a public announcement of his own engagement. One cannot but wonder how much of this side a life for popular approval. Perhaps none; for whatever the Kaiser's other faults may be, he has never been accused of craftiness.

It was recalled at the time of the wedding that Mecklenburg princesses always made good wives for German monarchs, for Queen Louise had come from Mecklenburg, and Queen Louise was the great-grandmother of both Frederick and his fiancée. One wonders, therefore, how the Kaiser had for objecting. The trouble all lay in Cecilia's mother, the Grand Duchess Anastasia, who had never been regarded with any too much approval at court. She was more Russian than German and far too worldly to appeal to the Kaiserin. But—and here again the German populace was pleased—Cecilia had been brought up by a real, true English governess and knew nothing of her mother's worldly ways.

There is nothing that pleases a King's subjects more than to have that King marry for love, so it may be that monarchs of to-day, who have their press agents just like anybody else in the public eye, always take pains to circulate the rumor that their marriage, "unlike that of almost any other King in history," is one of intense heart interest.

It is not until private papers and court memoirs are written generations later, that the truth of royal love affairs can really be known. However, we are inclined to believe that the marriage of King Oscar of Sweden and Sophia of Nassau, which occurred fifty-five years ago to-day, led to intense happiness, and this in spite of great dissimilarity of taste between the two principals. King Oscar was gay, light-hearted and fond of merriment, while Sophia was intensely religious and of a pietistic turn of mind. However, June 6 stands out as the anniversary of two of the apparently happiest royal marriages of modern European history.

SERVICES TO-DAY FOR MISS MILDRED J. HILL

The body of Miss Mildred J. Hill, a musician and writer of kindergarten songs, who died Sunday midnight at the home of her brother, W. W. Hill, 1453 North Dearborn street, Chicago, will arrive here this morning and will be taken to the home of her physician, Dr. Henry K. Tuley, 2287 Cherokee road. Funeral services will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. Burial will be in Cave Hill cemetery.

daughter of W. J. Davidson, of 2730 Alford avenue, died of pneumonia at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. Funeral services will be conducted at the residence at 9 o'clock this morning, with burial in the Eastern cemetery.

OKDALE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES TO BE TONIGHT

All of the Thirty-six Pupils of Highland Park District Pass Examinations.

Proud of the fact that all of the thirty-six pupils of the Highland Park Grade School District No. 46, including Highland Park and Okdale, passed examination before the County Board, trustees, parents, teachers and children are looking forward to the commencement with great interest.

To-night the exercises of the Okdale school will be held. Dr. A. J. Kinnaman, of Bowling Green, delivering the principal address. An entertainment will be given in connection with the affair. Friday night the Highland Park school exercises will be conducted in the new auditorium of the Eastside school building. On this occasion, Dr. E. Burdette, of Bowling Green, will speak. On Thursday night an entertainment will be given at the same place.

C. W. Campbell, superintendent, has issued invitations to everybody interested in the work of the schools.

HEAR PAPER ON CAREER

BREAKFAST

Given Yesterday At the River Valley Club in Honor of the Goodie-Durratt Bridal Party.

Mr. Keith Bullitt was host yesterday at a breakfast at the River Valley Club in honor of Miss Virginia Goodie and Mr. R. T. Durratt.

Mr. Bullitt's guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peter Lewman, MISSSES
Mary Ellen Thix, Virginia Goodie, Jean Cotton, of Athens, Ga. Toronto; Nelly Phinizy, of Baltimore. MESSRS
R. T. Durratt, Frederick Phillip Allen Seibe, of St. Paul; Alvah Terry, Jr., of Baltimore.

LUNCHEON

To Be Given To-day By Mrs. G. Breaux Ballard.

Miss Helen Draper, of Boston, will be guest of honor to-day at a luncheon given by Mrs. G. Breaux Ballard at her home on Douglas boulevard.

Covers will be laid for the following: MESSDAMES
Arthur Middleton, William Gaunt, George Babcock, Elizabeth Boylston. MESSRS
Helen Draper, Elizabeth Boylston, Anna Boylston, of Chicago.

INFORMAL DINNER

Given Last Night At The Seebach in Honor of Miss Edith Steele Johnson, of Cleveland.

Mr. Clarke Lampton was host last night at an informal dinner at The Seebach in honor of Miss Edith Steele Johnson, of Cleveland.

The party included: MISSSES
Edith Steele John-Lila Robinson, Marion Green. MESSRS
Gilmore Ouer, Maurice Davis, bacher, Clarke Lampton.

POINTS ABOUT PEOPLE

To reach the Society Editor call Cumberland Main 355 or Home 8650.

Mrs. Maurice R. Cotton will be host Thursday at a tea to be given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Clark, on Third street, in honor of Miss Ashton Woodman, of Charleston, W. Va., and Polly Kinkead.

Mrs. Frederick Fish, of South Bend, Ind., will be guest of honor to-morrow at a luncheon given at the River Valley Club by her daughter, Mrs. G. Breaux Ballard.

Miss Louise Jones will be host at a dinner June 12 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jones, on Cherokee drive, in honor of Miss Nora Prather Witty and Mr. Saunders P. Jones, whose marriage will take place June 11.

Miss Mary Ellen Thixton was host last night at a dinner in honor of the Goodie-Durratt bridal party. The table decorations were artistically carried out in pink. At either end of the table were large pink baskets filled with pink peonies and honeysuckle, and between these baskets in the center of the table were silver dishes filled with candies and nuts.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Felix, of Harlan, and Mr. Charles Beckham Kinkead, of Boston, will be solemnized to-night at 8 o'clock in the Blue hall, will arrive to-day to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shedd Williams and her daughter, Mrs. M. P. Washburn, will go this week to spend the remainder of the month with Mr. Williams' brother, Mr. Richard M. Williams, and Mrs. Williams before going to remain until fall at a camp in the Adirondacks. Mrs. Williams' mother, Mrs. Loken, of Scotland, will join them for the summer.

Mrs. S. K. Henning and daughter, Miss Loris Henning, left Sunday night for Hot Springs, where they will spend several weeks.

Mrs. Joseph Sabel and daughter, Miss Esther Sabel, left Sunday for Lexington, to be the guests of Mrs. Sabel's daughter, Mrs. Dolph Wile, and Mr. Wile.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Washburn returned Friday after spending several days in Nashville.

Mr. Theodore P. Washburn, who has been spending the week-end the guest of his parents, returned last night to his home in Anneton, Ala.

Mr. William Colgan will leave next month for Chicago, where he will make his home in the future.

Mrs. Colgan and children will be the guests of Mrs. C. W. Washburn, Mrs. Robert Tilford, until fall, when they will join Mr. Colgan.

Mrs. Charles B. Woodcock will give a talk to-night on cut flowers at the Anceorage Country Club.

Mrs. E. Rosenberg, after spending some time the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Morris Davis, and Dr. Davis in Lexington, has returned to Louisville, and is visiting with Mr. Edwin Rosenberg, and Mrs. Rosenberg.

Mr. Jack Speed will return this week from Purdue University, where he is a student, to spend the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Speed.

Miss Agnes Kelly, of St. Paul, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Castleman, Jr., at their home in Anceorage Park.

Misses George Mooney, Bertha Howard and Clay Carter, of Harlan, arrived yesterday to be the guests of Miss Susan Kinkead Warren until after the Warren-Carter wedding.

Mr. Edward Nathan, who spent the week-end visiting in Louisville, returned to his home in Memphis Sunday.

Miss Carolyn Verkeet will leave to-day for Chicago, where she will spend two weeks.

Mrs. Samuel Gwaryn Tyler, who has been visiting in Cincinnati for several days, has returned.

Mr. John B. Carter, of Harlan, arrived yesterday and is to be the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Susan Kinkead Warren, which will take place to-morrow.

Mrs. L. Jonas, of Nashville, after a short visit to Mrs. Simon Lazarus, has gone to Fresh Lick Springs to join Mr. Jonas.

Mrs. Charles G. Lucas will leave this week for Portsmouth, O., where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles McGuire Jones, and Mr. Jones.

Mrs. Roscoe Doss, of Savannah, is visiting with Mrs. H. Humphreys, at his apartment at the Courtland.

Miss Katherine Lord, of West Point, arrived yesterday to be the guest of Miss Mattie Marshall Curd.

Mr. and Mrs. Mat Cohen and Miss Mildred Mayfield, of Frankfort, are spending several days at The Seebach.

Miss Anne Bennett Cohen, who has been attending Randolph Macon, will arrive to-day to join her father for a few days before returning with Mr. and Mrs. Cohen to Frankfort.

Mr. Murray Bowen, who has been spending the week-end in Louisville, returned Sunday night to his home in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall Bullitt left yesterday to attend the Republican convention in Chicago.

Mr. Leon Frankel, after joining Mrs. Frankel and children, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bakrow in Cincinnati for a short stay, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller, Miss Mary Welling Miller and Master William Burk Miller, of Augusta, Ga., are the guests of Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Nene Coleman have gone to Frankfort, where they are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Rosey.

GRAND TRUNK CIRCLES

the Most Satisfying

NOT only is the cost of returning another, granted, they afford a and Canada unapproached by

The Grand Trunk is the leader in circle tours. We have 77 varieties and there is not a spot of interest in the East which is not covered. Toronto, the Thousand Islands, Montreal, Quebec, New York, New England, Atlantic City, Niagara Falls.

SOUTH

"The Atlantic in the Heart of N"

South Haven is situated 12 hours from Chicago by big steel (fare only $1.25), or by train, twenty-five miles by West Michigan. All city conveniences and every facility for sport and recreation. Golf courses within the city, ten miles and miles of broad, safe, sun bathing beach. Thorough water and milk inspection.

South Haven has many sunny hotels, cottages and farm resort.

For complete particulars a rates, address Resort Association, Box No. 6, South Haven, Mich.

CAPE MAY HOTEL

New Modern Fireproof Resort Hotel directly on the Ocean

Being comfort, finest bathing beach in the world, electric, auto-boating, good automobiles, C. A. WOOD, Local Booking Office, Hotel Warrington, 181 Madison Ave., N. Y. C.

DEATHS

GILL—Sunday night, June 4, at 10 o'clock, Mrs. James A. Gill. Funeral at the residence, 112 Hillier street, at 1 o'clock. Burial Shelbyville, Ky.

HILL—Monday, June 5, 1916, at 11 a. m. Mildred J. Hill, at Chicago, Ill. Funeral from First Presbyterian church at 4 p. m. Tuesday, June 6. Burial West.

HERBERGER—Sunday, June 4, 1916, at 3 p. m. John A. Herberger, age 38 and 10 months and 25 days, son of Peter Regina Ender Herberger, deceased. Funeral Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, 809 South 8th street, and from St. Martin's church at 1 o'clock. Interment in St. Michael's cemetery.

MADDOX—Gladys Fink Maddox, 2 1/2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Maddox. Funeral notice will be given later.

MEETINGS

Hiram Chapter, No. 129, R. A. M., will meet in stated convocation this (Tuesday), June 6, 1916, at 8 p. m. in Robinson Hall, southwest corner Seventeenth and Main streets, for regular business the conference of the Mark. Past.

NOR DOWN
society Res.
As Sec
HARLAN
plat schools considered at directors of sty of Kenrson yesterdays showed had a prom-ing an-meeting that for the past responding to the schools at signation of accepted by afterward office. After a work with-or.
town in edu-
y. For three Cumberland and for
of the Bethel ville, Ky. He is ago after Bethel Col-numerous of schools, but in because of educational a remarkable by Valley at road field for on to serve Perkins, the president of committee to their great work in con-
on.
of affiliation
be presented Association,
le in November and to discussed, it schools and k were also yesterday a building of nville, Ky.,
The dis-
ective Com-P continuing y Valley at tion will be of those in eastonburg.
and the
L. Winburn, of Hopkins-
isellville; E.
Georgetown;
Georgetown;
of Campbell-
F. D. Perkins.

ATION FOR E PARADE
ILLE AND IG TRIP will be repree of women in icago to-mor-zone to attend

educational work. After accepting the action to serve without pay from Prof. Perkins, the Rev. Dr. H. L. Winburn, president of the directors, appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressing their gratitude for the professor's work in connection with the society.

Plan of Affiliation.

A comprehensive plan of affiliation of schools in Kentucky will be presented in a report to the General Association, which will meet in Louisville in November. This report was mapped out yesterday and ways and means relative to the affiliation plan were discussed. Reports on conditions of all schools and plans for the future work were also considered.

It was authorized at yesterday's meeting to repair the main building of Bethel College at Hopkinsville, Ky., the work to begin at once. The directors referred to the Executive Committee the advisability of continuing a school in the Big Sandy Valley at Prestonburg, Ky. No action will be taken pending the work of those in charge of the school at Prestonburg.

The following directors attended the meeting: The Rev. Dr. H. L. Winburn, president; W. M. Thompson, of Hopkinsville; W. M. Seay, of Russellville; R. G. Bowers of Paducah; W. M. Wood, of Mayfield; B. A. Davis, of Georgetown; M. R. Adams, president of Georgetown College; J. L. Atkinson, of Campbellsville; J. Paul Bagby and F. D. Perkins, of Louisville.

LARGE REPRESENTATION FOR CHICAGO SUFFRAGE PARADE

WOMEN OF LOUISVILLE AND KENTUCKY MAKING TRIP TO-DAY.

Louisville and Kentucky will be represented by more than a score of women in the suffrage parade in Chicago to-morrow, some of whom have gone to attend the Progressive National Convention. Many will participate in the mass-meeting this afternoon and the ball to-night. The majority will leave to-day.

Those who will go from Louisville are Mesdames Sam C. Henning, Herbert Mengel, Allan Carter, Martha D. Cheney, Lawrence Cheney, Harry Whiteside, A. L. Hutchinson, C. D. Tice and R. A. McDowell and Misses Carolyn Verhooff, Julia Henning, Elizabeth Mengel and Virginia Kaye. Mrs. James Ross Todd, Mrs. A. T. Hert and Mrs. William Marshall Bullitt also will go to Chicago, but will not take part in the parade.

Women from Kentucky who have notified Louisville suffrage headquarters of their intention to make the trip are: Mesdames Desha Breckinridge, Lexington; Edmund Post, Paducah; Charles Berryman, Lexington; T. J. Smith, Frankfort; E. C. O'Rear, Frankfort; John G. South, Frankfort, and Edwin P. Morrow, Somerset, and Miss Irene Krone, Paducah. Miss Krone is a delegate to the Progressive National Convention, and the only delegate from Kentucky who will have a whole vote.

Miss Georgia Mitchell, of Chicago, is chairman of the "ex-Kentucky" contingent of the Windy City, which will march with the Kentucky division in the suffrage parade. The programme for the suffragists begins with a mass meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Princess Theater. A buffet supper and ball will be given to-night at the Lombard Hotel, which has been designated as suffrage headquarters. The parade is the only event programmed for to-morrow.

WAR PRISONER ASKS BROTHER HERE FOR SUIT

Lieut. Blaufeld's Letter Indicates Life in Siberia Is Not All Roses.

Acknowledging receipt of a consignment of law books sent him by Ben F. Washer, of Louisville, and asking that an old "wornout suit of clothes" be sent him, Lieut. Henry Blaufeld, of the Austrian army, now captive in Irkutsk, Siberia, has written a letter to his brother, Maurice Blaufeld, of Louisville, indicating in its tone that the Siberian prison life is not as rosy as he described it in another letter received a few months ago.

The latest communication, mailed April 17, was received by the local man yesterday. It is well having taken done, than the Crown Prince was marrying for love—a motive dear to the heart of every true German. But the Kaiser did eventually give his blessing and consent after the Crown Sopnia was intensely religious and of a pietistic turn of mind. However, June 6 stands out as the anniversary of two of the apparently happiest royal marriages of modern European history.

Johnson, or Cle The party inc

Edith Steele Jo son, Virginia Colem

Gilmore Ouer-bacher,

POINTS

To reach the S land Main 385 or

Mrs. Maurice Thursday at a home of her p James S. Clark honor of Miss Charleston, W.

Mrs. Frederic Ind., will be gu at a luncheon l ey Club by h Breaux Ballard

Miss Louise, dinner June 12, ents, Mr. and C Cherokee drive, ris Prather W Jones, whose n June 14.

Miss Mary E last night at a Goodloe-Durret table decoration ried out in pin table were la with pink pon between these the table were candies and nu

The wedding of Harlan, of Kniskern, of B to-night at 8 o to-the Puritan

Mrs. John W Beckley, Messr John M. Scott last night for wedding of M Beckley will u They were Mr. Beckley's llams, Mr. W Farrand, of D ston and Mr. Baltimore, will Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. gone to French ten days.

Mr. and Mrs and children, phrey and Ma phrey, closed avenue yester Glenview, wh summer with Judge Alexan Mrs. Humphre;

Miss Edith visit to Miss V turn to her hc

Mr. and Mrs Mrs. Samuel G Master Samue move June 15 on Cherokee Third and Ma Mr. and Mr and children on First stree same time t which they ha

Miss Alice after a sho Mrs. Joseph for Eminence, guest of Mr. s

Mrs. James S Maurice R. C night after s Dawson Spring Mr. Cotton business trip l Miss Ashton W. Va., who h

SERVICES TO-DAY FOR

MISS MILDRED J. HILL

MUSICIAN AND WRITER OF KINDERGARTEN SONGS DIES AT CHICAGO.

The body of Miss Mildred J. Hill, a musician and writer of kindergarten songs, who died Sunday midnight at the home of her brother, W. W. Hill, 1433 North Dearborn street, Chicago, will arrive here this morning and will be taken to the home of her physician, Dr. Henry E. Tuley, 1257 Cherokee road. Funeral services will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. Burial will be in Cave Hill cemetery.

Miss Hill had been an invalid of pulmonary trouble several years. Two weeks ago Dr. Tuley accompanied her from her home, 1139 South Fourth street, to her brother's home at Chicago. A telegram was received here Sunday evening announcing her critical condition, and yesterday morning Dr. Tuley was notified of her death.

MISS MILDRED HILL.

Mildred J. Hill was born in Louisville and received her education at Bellewood Seminary, Anchorage, Ky. Although her reputation rested chiefly on her gift as song-composer, she was thoroughly grounded in every branch of music and was one of the most capable critics in Louisville. For twenty or more years she was recognized as an authority on musical subjects and her judgment was constantly sought by local organizations and individuals who knew that, in her interest and kindness were conjoined with uncompromising sincerity. Her reputation was of the permeating sort; even her intimate friends were often ignorant of its extent. Her first volume of kindergarten songs, "Song Stories for the Kindergarten," has run through more than twenty editions, and the words have been translated into the French, German, Spanish, Chinese, Japanese and Swedish languages. Miss Hill published about thirty-five separate songs, and a collection of "Seven Songs," which, though it was brought out over twenty years ago, is still being issued by the publishers. Her songs are characterized by spontaneous and distinctive melody, by inventiveness and variety in harmony, and, especially, by the sincerity of feeling which found a natural, unforced musical expression for every sentiment contained in the words. The most popular of her songs were "A Perfect Day," "Legacies" and "Sleep Song." One of her recent compositions was a setting of Cale Young Rice's poem, "How Many Ways the Infinite Has." This song, which is very characteristic of the lyric beauty of Miss Hill's style, was sung at a recent meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association.

Miss Hill was a faithful supporter of

daughter of W. J. Davidson, of 2730 Alford avenue, died of pneumonia at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. Funeral services will be conducted at the residence at 10 o'clock this morning, with burial in the Eastern cemetery.

OAKDALE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES TO BE TO-NIGHT

All of the Thirty-six Pupils of Highland Park District Pass Examinations.

Proud of the fact that all of the thirty-six pupils of the Highland Park Graded School District No. 46, including Highland Park and Oakdale, passed examination before the County Board, trustees, parents, teachers and children are looking forward to the commencement with great interest.

To-night the exercises of the Oakdale school will be held, Dr. A. J. Kinnaman, of Bowling Green, delivering the principal address. An entertainment will be given in connection with the affair. Friday night the Highland Park school exercises will be conducted in the new auditorium of the Eastside school building. On this occasion Dr. F. Burton, of Bowling Green, will speak. On Thursday night an entertainment will be given at the same place.

C. W. Campbell, superintendent, has issued invitations to everybody interested in the work of the schools.

HEAR PAPER ON CAREER OF JOEL TANNER HART

A sketch of the life and career of Joel Tanner Hart, Kentucky's sculptor, was given in a paper read at a meeting of the Filson Club by Mrs. Fannie Casseday Duncan, at the Louisville Free Public Library, last night. Talks on Mrs. Duncan's paper by several members followed. Two bust figures carved by the noted sculptor are in the art department of the library. The meeting was well attended.

THE DAILY FASHION HINT

two the were State well orted arge lain- ex- ina- One d in d. to sses. -hve he- were 'ark cases wit- That rder from out- from one- skin- unty not- at it for regre 2,950 s of is-ore unty rbon st. of can will and some when unty. ss in rainst e of- The $81- roud Play- vate 445- togan es. re- State clay- oblin- Har- gess- E. J. lison, erton. Pri- Com- Rieb- d the k at - en- SION TAKE H State of the Baptists that en the ty four for its ommit- ropria- e Mis- crative Va. in Board ju. will journal- pledge of $179, -ment-

WOMEN OF LOUISVILLE AND KENTUCKY MAKING TRIP TO-DAY

Louisville and Kentucky will be represented by more than a score of women in the suffrage parade in Chicago to-morrow, some of whom have gone to attend the Progressive National Convention.

Those who will go from Louisville are Mesdames Sam C. Henning, Herbert Mengel, Allen Carter, Martha D. Cheney, Lawrence Cheney, Harry Whiteside, A. L. Hutchinson, C. O. Tice and R. A. McDowell and Misses Carolyn Verhooff, Julia Henning, Elizabeth Mengel and Virginia Kaye. Mrs. James Ross Todd, Mrs. A. T. Hert and Mrs. William Marshall Bullitt also will go to Chicago, but will not take part in the parade.

Women from Kentucky who have notified Louisville suffrage headquarters of their intention to make the trip are: Mesdames Deane Bueckinridge, Lexington; Edmund Post, Paducah; Charles Berryman, Lexington; T. J. Smith, Frankfort; E. C. O'Rear, Frankfort; John G. South, Frankfort, and Edwin P. Morrow, Somerset, and Miss Irene Krone, Paducah. Miss Krone is a delegate to the Progressive National Convention, and the only delegate from Kentucky who will have a whole vote.

Miss Georgia Mitchell, of Chicago, is chairman of the "ex-Kentucky" contingent of the Windy City, which will march with the Kentucky division in the suffrage parade. The programme for the suffragists begins with a mass meeting at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Princess Theater. A buffet supper and ball will be given to-night at the Lombard Hotel, which has been designated as suffrage headquarters. The parade is the only event programmed for to-morrow.

WAR PRISONER ASKS BROTHER HERE FOR SUIT

Lieut. Blaufeld's Letter Indicates Life In Siberia Is Not All Roses.

Acknowledging receipt of a consignment of law books sent him by Ben F. Washner, of Louisville, and asking that an old "wornout suit of clothes" be sent him, Lieut. Henry Blaufeld, of the Austrian Army, now captive in Irkutsk, Siberia, has written a letter to his brother, Maurice Blaufeld, of Louisville, indicating in its tone that the Siberian prison life is not as rosy as he described it in another letter received a few months ago.

The latest communication, mailed April 17, was received by the local man yesterday. It is written in English, the writer having taken up the study of that language a short time ago that he might be able to communicate more freely with relatives in this country.

The letter covers four pages. Lieut. Blaufeld regrets that he cannot write as much to his loved ones at home. "To my dear ones," he states, "I write only post cards with the unchangeable short contents: 'I am wholesome.' I sometimes vary the words or use another term, but the purpose is always the same. You must also suffice with an account of that kind, and though your curiosity continues being unsatisfied, and you have only a meagre compensation for your expectations, I think that the corroboration of being healthy will not be unwelcome to your heart brotherly attached to me."

AMUSEMENTS

Fontaine Ferry High-Class Vaudeville Dancing Daily Free and Concerts Swimming Pool

MISS MILDRED HILL.

street, to her brother's home at Chicago. A telegram was received here Sunday evening announcing her critical condition, and yesterday morning Dr. Tuley was notified of her death.

Mildred J. Hill was born in Louisville and received her education at Belkwood Seminary, Anchorage, Ky. Although her reputation rested chiefly on her gift as song-composer, she was thoroughly grounded in every branch of music and was one of the most capable critics in Louisville. For twenty or more years she was recognized as an authority on musical subjects and her judgment was constantly sought by local organizations and individuals who knew that, in her interest and kindness were conjoined with uncompromising sincerity. Her reputation was of the permeating sort; even her intimate friends were often ignorant of its extent. Her first volume of kindergarten songs, "Song Stories for the Kindergarten," has run through more than twenty editions, and the words have been translated into the French, German, Spanish, Chinese, Japanese and Swedish languages. Miss Hill published about thirty-five separate songs, and a collection of "Seven Songs," which, though it was brought out over twenty years ago, is still being issued by the publishers. Her songs are characterized by spontaneous and distinctive melody, by inventiveness and variety in harmony, and, especially, by the sincerity of feeling which found a natural, unforced musical expression for every sentiment contained in the words. The most popular of her songs were "A Perfect Day," "Legacies" and "Sleep Song." One of her recent compositions was a setting of Cale Young Rice's poem, "How Many Ways the Infinite Has." This song, which is very characteristic of the lyric beauty of Miss Hill's style, was sung at a recent meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association.

Miss Hill was a faithful supporter of all local musical enterprises and rendered an invaluable service to the musicians of Louisville, past and present, by contributing to J. Stoddard Johnston's "Memorial History of Louisville," a comprehensive chapter on the "History of Music in Louisville," which remains the sole complete record of local musical life.

No woman in Louisville was more widely and sincerely loved. For many years she devoted much time to piano teaching; her gentle nature and rare sympathy with children making lifelong friends of her pupils. She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian Church, and an active member of the Woman's Club and the Kentucky Humane Society.

Miss Hill was a member of a prominent old family. Her father, the late Rev. W. W. Hill, was for many years pastor of a Presbyterian church at Anchorage. She is survived by her brother, W. W. Hill, of McCoy & Company, brokers, and three sisters, Miss Mary Hill, supervisor of the kindergarten department of the Louisville public schools, and Misses Fattie and Jessie Hill, of the Columbia University faculty, New York.

Agnes Virginia Davidson, 7 years old,

Building. On this occasion Dr. Burton of Bowling Green, will speak on Thursday night an entertainment will be given at the same place. C. W. Campbell superintendent has issued invitations to everybody interested in the work of the school.

HEAR PAPER ON CAREER OF JOEL TANNER HART

A sketch of the life and career of Joel Tanner Hart, Kentucky's poet-sculptor, was given in a paper read at a meeting of the Filson Club by Mrs. Fannie Casseday Duncan, at the Louisville Free Public Library, last night. Talks on Mrs. Duncan's paper by several members followed. Two bust figures carved by the noted sculptor are in the art department of the library. The meeting was well attended.

THE DAILY FASHION HINT

A sportswill of wool or of silk jersey is quite the correct thing for those who like the newest, fed-in sport clothes. A smart suit of moss wool jersey fabric has deep yoke, slashed pockets, button-trimmed, and a trimmed belt, sash about the waist. The collar is faced with white glazed kid. A sport hat in white straw with blue sequined and tinsel.

The wedding of Harlan and Kniskern of Bog to-night at 8 at the Fountain.

Mrs. John W. Beckley, Messrs. John M. Scott and last night for a wedding of Miss Beckley will take place at 8 o'clock to-night at 8 at the Fountain.

Mr. and Mrs. gone to French ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. and children, M. Shrey, closed their avenue yesterday, Glenview, when summer with M. Judge Alexander, Mrs. Humphrey.

Miss Edith S. visit to Miss Vir turn to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Master Samuel move June 15 to on Cherokee d Third and Magn Mr. and Mrs. and children w on First street same time to which they have.

Miss Alice S. after a short Mrs. Joseph G for Eminence, guest of Mr. ar

Mrs. James B. Maurice R. Co night after sp Dawson Springs Mr. Cotton r business trip in Miss Ashton W. Va., who ha

Libbe MINT AND OTH CHINA M Wed MANY SI PRACTICE GIFT PUI FOR HO OFFERS INCOMPL TABLE C PRIORS J. Do 42 FO We G