The first system of music consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. A long, thin horizontal line with a wavy top edge spans across both staves, indicating a sustained or arpeggiated texture. The system concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

The second system of music consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The staves are mostly empty, with some faint markings. The system concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

The third system of music consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The staves are mostly empty, with some faint markings. The system concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

The fourth system of music consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The staves are mostly empty, with some faint markings. The system concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

The fifth system of music consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The lower staff contains a sequence of notes: a half note G2, a quarter note A2, a quarter note B2, a quarter note C3, a quarter note D3, a quarter note E3, a quarter note F3, a quarter note G3, and a quarter note A3. The system concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.
